DO WE? WE DO!

The boy's was a-sittin' by the railin', near the bow, A-talkin' to his shipmates an' a-sayin' to 'em how We needed just a Farragut in this here bloomin' row.
An' the gunner's mate said: "Dewey?"
What cher think?"

Then the boy's hitched his trousers and changed his gait to port,
He was an old-time boy, an' the old-time fightin sort.
An' he said we want a fighter for to take this Morret fort.
And the gun crew answered: "Dewey?" S'pose we do?"

"Yes," the boy said, quite hearty: "he's like the fightin' Turk, What I've read about in story books, who didn't never shirk.
But we only need an Admiral to finish up the work."
An' the whole crew answered: "Dewey?" Guess we do."

An' the people down in Congress are a-goin' to take the tip, For they know about the Commodore an' how he runs a ship;
An' he runs a fleet just like it, an' he always makes his trip.
So the people want him, Dewey?
Yes, we do."

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKelth took tea with them at their pleasant home on Kennelick street Friday evening last.
A happy evening was passed.

The ball game yesterday between Emmet and the home team was a very close one, the score standing 8 to 6, in favor of Yale. The game was brought to a sudden finish by the shower at the end of the seventh inning.

Yale's population was considerably diminished Sunday on account of so many families spending the day at Lakeport. A refreshing shower in the morning cooled the atmosphere and a very pleasant day was spent in bathing and boating.

Huron, will not make his regular visits to Yale, as usual, but will devote his whole attention to his office in Port Huron, where he can be found at any time.

T. C. Mapes last week suffered the loss of his fine thoroughbred and registered trotting mare. She broke her leg in the pasture field in some way. Later we understand that Dr. Saigron has the horse in charge and expects to save her, and he certainly will if it can be done.—Sanilac County Republican.

Frank Francis has purchased W. F.
English's interest in the drug store at Kingsdon and is now sole proprietor.
He was home this week and in conversation with him we learned that he is doing a nice business. Frank is a tip-top fellow and has a host of friends in Yale who like to see him "pushing on in the world."

E. Weatherwax has leased the vacant lots north of the depot and is erecting a building on the property for an apple evaporator. This will be a bonanza for our farmers as they will have a market for their fruit. Mr.
Weatherwax wants 10,000 bushels of apples and will be ready to do business by August 18th.

An agricultural paper, dealing with fall exhibitions, points to the fact that the difficulty of making displays of agricultural products at fairs is that collecting is too often delayed until within a week or two of the show, then a few samples are hurriedly secured.
As a result this feature is frequently one of the best. It urges farmers to begin at once, and the advice could very well be taken by exhibitors in this section. Collect small grain while still in their prime. Then as fruits and vegetables become ripe select the best specimens, and by the time the fair opens you will have a representative collection.

A Tuscola county editor said silver buckles were becoming fashionable on garters, and he hoped to see more of them. His wife sued for a divorce and the only woman who had silver buckles on her garters, cowhided the poor editor until he was as raw as a potato.

Dick Dagg who left Yale three months ago in company with J. M.
Palmer, and has since been employed in Tacoma, Wash., came back last Saturday on a two weeks business visit.
Dick is looking healthy and has been doing well. He says Mr. Palmer is making money.

One of the state papers has this to say of our own Sam: "Sam Bettes, a noted character of Yale, Mich., is traveling all over Northern Michigan, preaching to large audiences. He wears a cowboy attire and has a six shooter on the pulpit. He can snuff out a candle with his gun across any street, and preaches loud and long.
He draws big crowds."

Wm. Fitzgerald, Yale's exclusive shoe dealer, has just received a large stock of ladies', gents' and children's shoes, all sizes and all styles. He invites the people of Yale and surrounding country to call and inspect his goods. The stock has been bought at a low price and you can save money by buying of him. Mr. Fitzgerald does repairing at a reasonable price and guarantees satisfaction. See his ad. in this issue.

It will be but a short time before our town will be lighted up with electric lights. Before you give the job of wiring a house find out if the one you give the work to is competent. A. C.
Bowers & Co., of Port Huron, who are at present making estimates with C.
Andree & Sons, Jas. Livingston & Co., and other firms in Yale, have had more than ten years experience and are competent. Write or call on this firm.
Read their adv. in this issue.

An exchange says: Dewey is far the greatest man on earth. Besides being made an Admiral and thanked by Congress and slobbered over by press and public, he has about seven hundred thousand things named after him, ranging in size from a locomotive down to a plug of tobacco. He will go down to posterity smiling benignly in rosy colors from the labels on tomato cans.
A few years hence nearly one-third of the dirty little brats that run the streets will be christened Dewey. George Washington won't be in it. Lincoln will be relegated to a back seat. Why, two Clifford old maids came near having a fight this week because each one wanted to name her cat Dewey. It's Dewey everywhere. Another old maid is so stuck on the Admiral that she goes out every morning and takes the Kneipe cure on the lawn just because the grass is all dewey. Some of our bills to delinquent subscribers were due a long time ago, and are getting so mill-dewey with age that we will have to put them in an attorney's hands for collection and he won't dewey thing but make it lively for delinquents."

John Davey will give a grand Harvest Ball at the Dewey House, Emmet, on Wednesday evening, August 24th, 1898. Floor managers James Haley, H. P. McCabe, Dan O'Connell and Herman Zizzo. Music by Cassello's Italian Orchestra, of Port Huron. Bill including supper, $1.00. Mr. Davey is a good entertainer and will do all in his power to make it an enjoyable evening for you. Everybody invited to attend.

An editor who knows says that dreams of prosperity differ with the individual. The small boy's idea of perfect earthly happiness is six pieces of pie at a meal. The darkey dreams of a good ripe watermelon. The farmer's richest feeling is to mow over that 50 acres of wheat—that he didn't plant.
The bicyclist's most prosperous idea is a smooth track around the world. The confidence man has visions of green mossbacks coming to town in droves.
The country editor's most extravagant dream is how nice it would be for a dozen or more subscribers to call in and pay, all one day.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most interesting study and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable, and keep what they advertise. Some advertisers are led to believe that all that it is necessary to do is to run a big ad., make a big "holler" and the people will flock to them like flies to a sugar barrel. Their experience is teaching them differently for they are beginning to realize that the man who advertises the best goods in a reputable paper is doing the business.
This is true in every case.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Grotton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying that I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Grant Holden's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.
